The Lawton fund has reached $50,000, and is still growing.

A camp of Sons of the Confederacy has been organized at Georgetown.

Mrs. Graves, mother of the late J. M. Graves, of Lexington, will be 103 years old Tuesday.

Thieves near Stanford stole $65, two gold watches and a pistol from Martin Alcorn, a blind negro pensioner.

The Richmond city council will suspend for thirty days the license of any saloon selling liquor on Sunday.

The directors of the Louisville and Nashville railroad yesterday declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent.

Judge E. C. O'Rear, of Mt. Sterling, has announced his candidacy for Judge of Court of Appeals, to succeed Chief Justice J. H. Hazelrigg.

The loving cup made from melted dimes contributed by over 70,000 American citizens, a majority of whom were children, was presented to Admiral Dewey Tuesday.

The residence of Joseph Pulitzer, owner of the New York World, burned at New York Tuesday. The housekeeper and a governess lost their lives in the flames, and members of the family had a narrow escape.

Hon. O. W. Root, a prominent attorney of Newport, has been sued for $5,000 damages by Ida Mae Randall, a domestic who alleges that he unlawfully kissed her three times against her will and made improper proposals to her. Mr. Root declares that it is a blackmailing scheme.

Judge Cantrill, fined John Whallen's attorneys, Theodore Hallam and P. Wat Hardin, $30 each for contempt of court, holding that the two lawyers erred in criticising the acts of the Frankfort circuit court and its officers in the language used in the Whallen petition last Saturday. Both men at once paid the fines.

STOCK AND TURF NEWS.

Sales and Transfers Of Stock, Crops, Etc.

Mann & Fuhrman shipped a car of mules Wednesday to Hudson Bros., of Louisville.

H. S. Caywood sold to Gillispie Bros. 100 fat hogs at $3.60 per hundred and 20 cattle at $4.50 per hundred.

Thomas J. White, a merchant of Manchester, Clay county, bought of George B. Nelson, of Clark county, 326 acres of and in the Jack's Creek neighborhood for $14,897.55.

A Shorthorn steer weighing 3,300 pounds was sold last week on the Louisville market to a local butcher at 7 1/2c per pound, making the total price of the steer $235.

A Fleming county farmer's wife has kept account of her egg sales during the year 1899, and she finds that she has sold during this year 7,800 dozen, which averaged probably 12 1/2c per dozen.

The government report of the wheat crop says the yield this year was 547,300,000 bushels. The area shown this fall is estimated at 30,150,000 acres, which is 200,000 more than last year. The average condition is 97.1.

Redd & Bro. bought 35 head of young Thin Rind hogs from Judge John S. Phelps at $4 per cwt. They averaged 237 lbs. They also bought from other parties 90 head of fat hogs at 3 cents per hundred.—Lexington Gazette.

R. W. McRery, of Frankfort, Wednesday bought 130,000 of new hemp from Melanthon Young, of Jessamine, at $5 per cwt., delivered on the cars at Nicholasville. The freight charges added may bring the price to $104 per ton.

Louisville has gained largely more than Cincinnati in the handling of the Burley crop, besides selling more dark tobacco than any other market. The actual sales were 123,873 hogsheads of an average value of $73.12 each—less than in 1898, but more than in 1897.

Engagement Broken Off.

A girl in Montgomery broke her engagement with one of the wealthiest young men in the county, because he had indigestion so bad he was a menace to her happiness and no good to himself. What a relief just one bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin would have been to that man, and what a boon it is to-day to many a household, where it keeps all the family in a state of health that warrants true love, confidence and happiness in the home. Try it yourself. At G. S. Varden & Co's.

Gets Patrons Daily.

The needs of the human race are never ending. As soon as one want has been satisfied another demands attention. This is especially the case when the people have money to spend. The times are prosperous, and the people are, therefore, inclined to buy more freely than usual. The merchant who advertises continuously gets patrons daily.—Philadelphia Record.

Vaccination.

It appearing to me by representation of Dr. Bowen, the Health Officer of Bourbon County, that there is a necessity that all persons in the county should be vaccinated, I hereby authorize and empower the physicians of their respective precincts to vaccinate all persons who are unable to procure vaccination. The physicians shall furnish to me as Judge of said County, a true list, under oath, of the persons vaccinated by them, with the charges thereof, no to exceed twenty-five cents for each successful vaccination. All cities and towns in the county having Councilmen or Trustees do not come under this notice, as it is especially their duty to make proper provisions under Sec. 4611 of Kentucky Statutes. Every good citizen is interested in observing and assisting in the enforcement of this notice. I hope no further steps will become necessary. I am, respectfully,

W. M. PURNELL,
Judge of Bourbon Co., Ky.
